There often comes a time in the struggle with pulmonary disease when the victim loses heart and gives up hope. The ambition to be up and around gives way before growing weakness, and the sufferer keeps to the bed.

No one who suffers from lung disease should lose heart or give up hope while there is a possibility of cure. In many cases Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured lung "trouble" when the cough was obstinate and deep seated, with hemorrhage, emaciation, night-sweats and general weakness. A great many men and women are living to-day in the full enjoyment of health and happiness who had been "given up" by doctors, but found a perfect and permanent cure in the use of "Golden Medical Discovery."

SOLDIERS BURIED HER. The end of the chapter of the life of Elizabeth Pettit Cutler, bohemian and

Friday afternoon she was buried in the lot of Lee Camp, Confederate V-t-erans, in Riverview cemetery, Richmond.

Found dead in bed, dying without the kindly clasp of a friend's hand, dying penniless and almost in rags, Friday "Pet" Cutler, as she was known thirty-five and forty years ago, was saved from a pauper's buris!. She was the woman who spent bun-dreds and, perhaps, thousands, of doldreds and, perhaps, thousands, of doi-lars during the war giving comfort and cheer to Confederate prisoners at El-mira, N. Y., and other Union prisons. But when the story was printed, about a year ago, of her being found in almost starving, along came a gen-tleman in gray and showed a letter he had received from her when he was a it contained not only words of cheer, but assurances of help quickly forth coming.

Left an orphan in Charlottesville, she was adopted by an aunt, and being a child of genius, wrote a book that made money for the Appletons in New York and made her fame and fortune. The preity Miss Pettit, of Virginia, married one of the famous rich lawyers of the day in the great city of the North. When the war came she had to stay with her husband in the hostile country, and all that was left for her to do was to help the prisoners within her reach. Her husband allowed her plenty of money to spend in this way, and she spent it, and often risked her life to going through the lines on errands of love and mercy.

Lett a young widow, she surrounded berself with a court of brilliant men and women of Bohemia, and spent her fortune in a twinkling.

She burned the candle at both ends.

of her lite. PARKHURST AFIER LOW. Dr. Parkhurst yesterday gave out a letter addressed to Mayor Low, of New York, which had been adopted by the executive committee of the Society for the Prevention of Crime, of which Dr.

Parkhurst is president. The opening paragraph reads:
"While the Society for the Prevention of Crime counts itself distinctly an ally of the present municipal administration there are certain principles of action to which we have uniformly adhered and which we deem it incluort.

"In all our past activity as a society," says the letter, "we have proceeded upon the distinct understanding that law exists for the purpose of being The letter goes on to say that the The letter goes on to say that the first two weeks of the present regime have made it "entirely indefinite as to what civic righteousness in New York is and what it is not, and to that extent have operated to put the reform administration in the same criminal attitude toward law as was that occasion by the design of 1899.

cupied by the administration of 1892, 1894, 1897 and 1901." It deplores the fact that "while char-tered by the State to labor for the prevention of crime" the society is not "quite certain any longer what is crime," and says that "the atmosphere is clouded by ambiguity emanating from administrative incertitude," and that "the situation is morally intolerable,"

The letter further says that "there is not very much to choose between a Tammany administration that has bad principles and a reform administration that has good principles but is afraid to us- them. The letter, which is signed by Dr. Parkburst, concludes by demanding of Mayor Low that "you brace your administration into accord with your oath," and that he summon the resources at his command to the work of "frankly and resolutely suppressing controlled to the controlled to the
